

THE STORYLIGHT FRONTIER

WEEK FOUR:
NOVA TERRACE

WELCOME BACK, STORY TRAVELER

STATIC ALERT, STORY TRAVELERS!

We have received a fragmented transmission from our Creative Commander!

After searching the hidden treasure caches of Pirate Skylands, the Commander discovered an ancient piece of communication technology... a WALKMAN!

Using spare parts, pirate ingenuity, and a little creativity, they've managed to push a signal through. But there's a problem...

The Static is growing stronger.

NOVA TERRACE

The city of dreamers, inventors, creators, and innovators.

But while the Commander has arrived safely, the mission has become even more important.

Nova Terrace is one of the last places in the Frontier where creativity still thrives. Its towering inventions, brilliant artists, and imaginative builders have managed to resist the effects of the Static longer than anywhere else.

Now the Commander is trying to reach Nova Terrace for clues that could help us understand how to stop the Static before it spreads any further.

But they can't do it alone.
Story Travelers are needed immediately!

WEEK FOUR

MISSION OBJECTIVES

By the end of this week, Story Travelers will:

- Design a Building of the Future
- Create a future Invention
- Invent a Time Travel Jetpack
- Discover the Power of Creativity
- Create a Nova Terrace Character
- Assist the Creative Commander

MISSION ONE

DESIGN A FUTURISTIC BUILDING

What amazing structure would you create in Nova Terrace?
Draw it and tell us what makes it special.

WHAT IS YOUR STRUCTURE CALLED?

GREAT JOB, STORY TRAVELER!

You have officially completed Week FOUR:
NOVA TERRACE

Thanks to your imagination and innovation, the Inspiration Core has been restored and creativity is flowing through the city once again.

But as the Frontier celebrates, a new destination has appeared on the horizon...
A place filled with stories.

Heroes.

Inventors.

Dreamers.

And the people who helped shape a nation.

Next week, your journey continues in:
